Dear Friends,

This past Sunday I was blessed to celebrate Mother's Day with my entire family. It was a day to say thanks to our moms, grandmas, aunts and godmothers for their love, care and compassion. These people are the caretakers in our lives to whom we owe so much.

Mother's Day is also the traditional start of the planting season--the day that we dust off our gloves and boots and get digging. And what do we receive in return for our hard work? Months of colorful beauty, homegrown vegetables, bird songs, and blissful summer nights.

This year, I hope you'll take some time to be the caretaker of your own backyard habitat. Go out and get dirty, befriend the animals in your yard, and give a little to Mother Earth. Her beautiful bounty will reward you!

Fondly,
Maria Onesto Moran
